

Round Table Discussions Set One (10:00-11:00am)

1st TABLE—(Facilitator: Barbara Arter—Environmental Consultant)
"The Human Footprint in Maine Eastern Coastal Waters"

2nd TABLE--(Facilitator: Susie O'Keeffe—"Art of Reciprocity, Lecturer at College of the Atlantic)
Art & Ethics: How Does Art Influence Environmental Ethics?

3rd TABLE—(Facilitator: John Bear Mitchell—Wabanaki Center)
"The Value of Storytelling in Nature Rights & Ethics"

4th TABLE: (Facilitator: John Peckenham—
George J. Mitchell Center & Maine's Sustainability Solutions Initiative)
"Safe Water is a global issue: water ethics from hometown to global commons."

5TH TABLE: (Facilitators: Emily Markides,
ESTIA founder & Kyriacos Markides, Sociology Professor)
"Living in God's Creation with the Green Patriarch Bartholomew's environmental concerns."

Round Table Discussions Set Two (2:30-3:30pm)

1st TABLE—(Facilitator: Masanobu Ikemiya—Concert Pianist and Founder of Arcady Music)
Water and the power of music and words to heal

2nd TABLE— (Facilitator: Jennifer Greene, Water Institute, Blue Hill.)
"The Intrinsic Nature of Water & a New Social Ethic for Water Resources".

3rd TABLE---(Facilitator: Sherri Mitchell, Director of the Land Peace Foundation & graduate of U of Arizona School of Law)
"Indigenous water rights on a global scale"

4th TABLE—(Facilitator: gkisedtanamoogk)
Becoming more responsible to "living waters".
We will explore a step by step process of becoming more responsible to "living waters", for ourselves & future generations.

5th TABLE: (Facilitator: Sandra Hutchinson)
"Poetry, ethics and water themes."

10th Annual ESTIA EcoPeace Conference

Reclaiming the Water Commons: Water Ethics & Nature Rights in Maine

ARTISTS WORKS ON DISPLAY:

Louise Bourne
Margret Baldwin
Tom Curry
Scarlet Kinney

Michael Vermette
Susie O'Keefe
Johann Selmer-Larsen
Katenia Keller

October 25, 2013
8:30 am- 5:30 pm

Hutchinson Center
80 Belmont Avenue, Rte 3
Belfast, Maine

Ecopeace Sustainability Training and International Affiliations

Ceremony and Roundtable
Discussions, Drumming
and Artwork

Schedule of Events

8:00-8:30am: Registration

8:45am: Opening Ceremony:
gkisedtanamoogk (Lecturer, Native American Studies)

9:00am: Storytelling:
John Bear Mitchell
(Lecturer at the Wabanaki Center)

9:15-10:00am: Speaker:
John Banks (Director of
Dep't of Natural Resources,
Penobscot Indian Nation)

10:00-11:00am: Round Table
Discussions Set One

11:00-12Noon: Panel Discussion
(Each Facilitator will give a 10 minute summary of discussion)

12Noon-1:30pm: Lunch & Inanna,
Sisters in Rhythm (Percussion & Vocal Ensemble)

1:30-1:45pm: Poem by Sandra Hutchinson (Ed: Puckerbrush Review, Poetry: "The Art of Nesting")

1:45-2:30pm: Speaker Gail Darrell (Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund—
CELDF)

2:30-3:30pm: Round table
Discussions Set Two

3:30-4:30pm: Panel Discussion

4:30-5:00pm: Summary & Closing Remarks

5:00-5:30pm Hawk Henries
(Flute maker and musician.
Will share music, stories & humor)